

A FINAL FAREWELL

COLUMBIA CITY HIGH SCHOOL

It's with a heavy heart we must announce the planned goodbye celebration honoring the 1958 Columbia City High School will no longer be taking place, nor will the event be rescheduled.

Even though this is not how we wanted to say our final goodbye, our community can still remember the old high school and smile.

Because what Columbia City High School leaves behind is not what's engraved in the building's walls. It's the memories woven in the hearts and souls of those whose lives it touched. And, how wonderful it is that its legacy connects us forever.

Farewell old friend, you served us well.

From left to right, top to bottom:
Columbia City High School (present day), CCHS Varsity Cheerleaders (1969-1970), CCJHS building (1958), CCHS Cross Country (1995), CCHS building (cover of the 1959 yearbook)